

Global Village Consulting Inc. Announces a partnership with Apple Canada Inc. to promote GVC.SiteMaker to Canadian education clients

Vancouver, BC, February 1, 2004 -- Global Village Consulting Inc. announces that it has teamed up with Apple Canada Inc. to promote GVC.SiteMaker to Canadian education clients. GVC.SiteMaker is a global website creation and management application designed for K-12 and higher education. Created by university faculty, GVC.SiteMaker enables non-technical individual website publishers, such as faculty, students and staff to quickly and easily publish fully functional websites. GVC.SiteMaker improves communication within universities, colleges and schools between faculty, students, staff and the general public.

GVC.SiteMaker is built using Apple technology, including WebObjects 5.2 and is deployable on the Apple xServe G5 platform. After an extensive evaluation of GVC.SiteMaker, Apple Computer Inc. has decided to promote and bundle GVC.SiteMaker with to their Educational Customers as part of Apple Canada Inc.'s solution offerings. For customers interested in GVC.SiteMaker, Apple Canada Inc. and Global Village Consulting Inc. can now offer GVC.SiteMaker preinstalled on the Apple xServe.
